HONEYMOON WEEK END IN AZAD JAMMU AND KASHMIR

Azad Jammu & Kashmir (AJK) is the least known area of Northern Pakistan. This is a pity, as its valleys rival those of Kaghan and Swat in splendor with noteworthy alpine scenery. AJK has three major rivers passing through it whose valleys are still heavily forested, and sparsely populated. The Jhelum, Neelum and Poonch rivers afford one ample opportunities for fishing and the river banks offer innumerable sites for picnics.

Day 01: In the morning drive to Muzaffarabad, the capital, via the Murree Expressway and by-passing Bhurban, The drive through alpine forests and meadows is enthralling and offers a glimpse of the scenic beauty that awaits. After checking in and a short rest, proceed for an excursion to Pir Chinasi. This tourist spot is located 30 km east of Muzafarabad city on the top of hills at an elevation of 2900 meters. From here we have breath taking views of the Muzaffarabad Valley. Return to the hotel for overnight.

Day 02: Today take an excursion to Kutton which though only 93 kilometers from Muzaffarabad is over a 3 hour road journey. Kutton is an angler's paradise, whose swift streams and alpine views allow one to view nature at its serene best. Located in Jagran Valley at an altitude of 1530 meters, there is an interesting waterfall which makes for a picturesque picnic spot. The small bazaar here offers unique carved walnuts, and of course, Kashmiri shawls. Sometimes it is possible to get good bargain! After enjoying the beautiful vistas, return to Muzafarabad for overnight at the hotel.

Day 03: After a relaxed breakfast check out from the hotel for your return to Islamabad. On the way, a short stop at Muzafarabad view point allows one to enjoy the last glimpses of Azad Kashmir. Arrive Islamabad and transfer to one's hotel or guest house.
