3 NIGHTS HAPPY HONEYMOON IN KAGHAN

The Kaghan valley is a 150 kilometer long scenic wonderland, whose collection of Himalayan peaks, lakes, waterfalls and glaciers from an unspoilt paradise. Naran, the valley's main town, acts as a base camp for trekkers, trout fishers and adventure lovers. Lakes Saiful Muluk and Lalusar are nestled among vales, ringed by the Himalayas and the Babusar Pass, 4200 meters high, which provides access to Gilgit-Baltistan.

Day 1 Islamabad – Naran with Saif-ul-Muluk Lake: Depart early in the morning for Naran, the main town of Kaghan Valley. Later depart for Lake Saif ul muluk in local 4 x 4 jeeps. The lake is at height of 3200 meters and the shortest ride there take you through the top of the picturesque valley and the lake itself. Guarded by the Himalayas, the crystal clear waters of the lake mirror the azure sky and Malika Parbat, (Queen of Mountains) and gracefully captures the serene beauty that is so awe-inspiring. Return to the hotel in late afternoon for overnight.

Day 2 Lalusar Lake and Babusar Pass excursion: After breakfast start your day long excursion to the famous Lalusar Lake and Babusar pass. On a side trip, you can continue to Gittidas, where from an uphill drive takes you to the famous Babusar pass. Enjoy the breath taking views before returning to Naran. Over night at the hotel.

Day 3 Naran-Shogran: Drive to Shogran, another picturesque village. Shogran commands views down to a carpet of forest and up majestic peaks – including the 5290 meter Malika Parbat (Queen Of Mountains) tallest in the Kaghan valley, and the brooding, 3900 meter high Koh-i-Marka. In the afternoon proceed to a nearby small lake and beautiful meadows of Siri and Paya, 9 kilometers beyond Shogran up a rough jeep able road. Return to Shogran for overnight.

Day 4 Shogran-Islamabad: After a relaxed morning start retrace your route to Islamabad, arriving in the early evening.
