4 NIGHTS COZY HONEYMOON IN SWAT (SUMMER TOUR)

Swat is a land that shines with fruit laden orchards, flower filled slopes, meandering rivers, tumbling streams and is surrounded by the mighty ranges of the Hindu Kush and the Karakoram. The valley is 1200 meters above sea level and Saidu Sharif and Mingora are the towns that form the twin capital of this area. Kalam, 98 Kilometers from Saidu Sharif, is the last town accessible by car. It is at a height of 2200 meters, and is surrounded on all sides by the snow peaks of the Hindu Kush range, dense forests of pine, fir, deodar and wild flowers, dotted with orchards of walnut and borders the Ushu stream.

Day 01 Islamabad – Mingora/Saidu Sharif, Swat: Depart early on the M-1 motorway and then on Swat Express way to Chakdara and on to Saidu Sharif. In the afternoon you will visit Mingora Bazaar, which is the commercial center worth visiting, for there you will find emeralds for which Swat is famous and Murghzar white palace. Return to your hotel for overnight.

Day 02 Mingora/Saidu Sharif - Kalam: After breakfast set out for Kalam valley, situated 98 kilometers from Saidu Sharif at an elevation of 2070 meters. Enroute visit the towns of Madyan and Bahrain. Overnight at Hotel:

Day 03 Ushu and Lake Mahodand excursion: Today take local jeeps for an excursion to Ushu and Lake Mohdand. Enjoy the breath-taking scenery and the unobstructed views of Swat's highest peak, 5918m Falaksair. Return to Kalam in the late afternoon for overnight.

Day 04 Kalam - Malam Jabba – Mingora/Saidu Sharif: This morning retrace your route back to Saidu Sharif, and enroute visit Malam Jabba famous for the newly rebuilt ski resort, already open to public. A Buddhist stupa and monastery are a 15 minutes' walk away. In the afternoon, proceed to Mingora/Saidu Sharif for overnight.

Day 05 Mingora/Saidu Sharif - Islamabad: After breakfast drive back to Islamabad. On the way, take a short stop at Swat Museum and the remains of the Butkara Monastery, which will be your last glimpses of Swat. Arrive Islamabad and transfer to your drop off point.
