WEEK END IN LAHORE

Day 01 Lahore with afternoon sightseeing:

Pick up at the airport or lodging establishment in the afternoon and visit Shalimar Garden World Heritage Site (constructed by Emperor Shah Jahan in 1647), and then in the evening, visit Wagah border for witnessing the "Flag Lowering Ceremony". Drive back to Lahore city and proceed for special local dinner in the walled city. Overnight at the hotel.

Day 02 Lahore:

After breakfast begin a full day tour of Lahore. The historic capital of both the Mughal and Sikh empires, the city also played a significant part in the British governance of the Punjab. Home to a remarkable collection of cultural and historic highlights, your tour includes visits to the Lahore Museum, Badshahi and Lahore Fort which now enjoys the status of a "World Heritage Site". In the afternoon visit Wazir Khan Mosque, the famous Shahi Hamam (royal bath) that has been recently renovated and won a prestigious award for fine restoration. We will then go to Anarkali Bazaar, famous for its shopping. After the visit, we can either go to the Anarkali Food Street, Gowalmandi food street, or to M.M.Alam road where there are an assortment of modern day restaurants. Return to the hotel for overnight.

Day 03 Lahore sightseeing:

This morning after picking you up from your lodging establishment, visit Jahangir's Tomb, the only Mughal Emperor buried in Lahore and Noor Jahan's Tomb once richly decorated with floral fresco paintings on lime plaster. The Dilkusha Garden in which he is buried was a "favourite spot" of Jahangir and his wife Nur Jahan, when they lived in Lahore. From here we will go on to Hiran Minar where we find a Mughal era minaret and pond, built in 1606 as a monument to Emperor Jahangir's beloved pet antelope, Mansiraj, or "Light of the Mind". We will then return to Lahore and drop you at your lodging establishment/airport
