WEEK-END IN MALAM JABBA SWAT

Swat is a land that shines with fruit laden orchards, flower filled slopes, meandering rivers, tumbling streams and is surrounded by the mighty ranges of the Hindu Kush and the Karakoram. The valley is 1200 meters above sea level and Saidu Sharif and Mingora are the towns that form the twin capital of this area. Kalam, 98 Kilometers from Saidu Sharif, is the last town accessible by car. It is at a height of 2200 meters, and is surrounded on all sides by the snow peaks of the Hindu Kush range, dense forests of pine, fir, deodar and wild flowers, dotted with orchards of walnut and borders the Ushu stream.

Day 01 Islamabad-Takht-e-Bahi-SaiduSharif-Malam Jabba:

After being picked up from your hotel/guest house drive to Swat. On the way, visit Takht-e-Bahi, a site comprising of the ruins of Buddhist monasteries and listed as a UNESCO World Heritage Site. After visiting the site continue on to Saidu Sharif, for a refreshment stop and after this pause, continue the drive to Malam Jabba, the newly rebuilt ski resort situated 45 kilometers north east of Mingora and open to the public. In Malam Jabba there are many leisurely activities, including riding on ski lifts, ice-skating and if you are adventurous, even ice fishing! Additionally, there are many nice trails for walks. Overnight at the hotel.

Day 02 Malam Jabba:

Free day to enjoy the activities around the resort. Overnight at the hotel.

Day 03 Malam Jabba-Islamabad:

After a relaxed breakfast check out from the hotel, enjoy the vistas one last time and in the late afternoon return to Islamabad to your drop off point.
